SEVENTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
ADAMS COUNTY COLORADO
ORDER OF THE CHIEF JUDGE 05-01

SECURITY SCREENING FOR ENTRY INTO THE ADAMS COUNTY JUSTICE CENTER

Effective April 1, 2005, all persons, including attorneys, court staff, probation officers, and county employees must go through security screening when entering the front entrance of the Adams County Justice Center. All law enforcement officers, armed or unarmed, uniformed or plain clothes are required to present valid departmental identification, to register, and to record the reason they are attending court with court security personnel. Failure to do so will result in non-admittance and violators may be subject to discipline.

All employees of the public defender and district attorney office, excluding those employees who office in the Justice Center, must enter the Justice Center through the front door.

Signed this 14th day of March 2005.

/s/

Harlan Bockman, Chief Judge