

From: jones, jerry
Sent: Friday, August 04, 2017 2:42 PM
To: dailey, john
Subject: Rule 35(c)

Crim. P. 35(c)(3)(VII) currently says that “[t]he court shall deny any claim that could have been presented in an appeal previously brought or postconviction proceeding previously brought” I propose changing it to read: “The court shall deny any claim that could have been brought in an appeal previously brought, an appeal which could have been brought, or a postconviction proceeding previously brought”