I. Introductions

II. Presentations by Chief Deputy Public Defender Lucienne Ohanian and Adams County Assistant District Attorney Jess Redman

Ms. Ohanian and Mr. Redman provided an overview of potential areas for improvement and change in the pretrial and bail practices within the state of Colorado.

IV. Discussion

- There was discussion about multiple topics:
  - o The CPAT (pretrial risk assessment tool), which is currently being re-validated, and the possibility of requiring a standardized risk assessment tool statewide.
  - o The need for pretrial programs in every county in the state.
  - o The possibility of a non-monetary system of bail.
  - o What potential pretrial detention would look like, parameters that may be needed, the burden of proof that may be required, and whether the state constitution and state statutory provisions would need to be amended by the legislature.
  - o Education efforts regarding bail with respect to all criminal justice system stakeholders.
- Ms. Ohanian and Mr. Redman were afforded an opportunity to submit data and the names of other potential presenters to the Commission by July 20.

V. Next Meeting

The Commission will set the next meeting date and guests via email. The meeting adjourned at approximately 2:20pm.
