Glynn Baker is a licensed Colorado attorney with a mental health background. She has served as private mediator in domestic relations, paternity, dependency and neglect, and civil cases since 1995. She has worked as a contract mediator with the Colorado Office of Dispute Resolution since 2001. Glynn gained experience working with high-conflict parties as Child Legal Representative and Child and Family Investigator in over 400 cases, and has served as an ADR professional in over 3000 cases.

Glynn holds a Bachelors degree in Psychology from Vanderbilt University, a Masters degree in Counseling Psychology from Denver Seminary, and a law degree from University of Denver. She is a member of the Family Law Section of the Colorado Bar Association, the Metro Denver Interdisciplinary Committee, and the Mediation Association of Colorado. Prior to becoming a professional mediator, Glynn practiced personal injury law.

When not working as an ADR professional, Glynn can be found hiking, biking, and skiing the mountains of Colorado with her family.
