JOINT REQUEST FOR SETTING CONFERENCE

Matthew Margeson, District Attorney in and for the Twenty Second Judicial District, State of Colorado, respectfully moves the Court to schedule a setting conference in the above-captioned case, in support of this request, the People state as follows:

1. On April 19th, 2022, the Court issued an order with regards to the trial date in the above captioned matter.
2. The Court set trial for either August 15, 2022 or alternatively August 29, 2022, with an order that the parties were to file notices regarding witness availability within 7 days.
3. On April 25, 2022, the People filed notice indicating that absent additional dates being supplied, the People would prefer the August 15th start date.
4. On April 27, 2022, the Defense filed notice that neither trial date would be acceptable, noting that witnesses for the defense were unavailable for either trial date.
5. As it appears that neither of the trial dates are feasible, the People and Defense jointly request a scheduling conference to select a trial date, where all necessary witnesses can be available.

6. Holding a scheduling conference would be the most efficient manner in which to ascertain what trial dates are most feasible.
7. The People and Defense believe that such a conference could be conducted effectively via Webex, and would be the most efficient use of the Court's resources.
8. The People and Defense have conferred regarding this request, and both parties are in agreement that a scheduling conference is the appropriate next step.

NOW WHEREFORE, the People and Defense respectfully request the Court set a scheduling conference.

Respectfully submitted this 13th day of May, 2022
