ATTACHMENT "A"

The following Affidavit is made in support of a request for a Search Warrant to be issued a residence located 269 E Lake Avenue, City of Woodland Park, County of Teller and State of Colorado.

Your Affiant is Commander Christopher Adams #1220, is a duly sworn and state certified police officer with the Woodland Park Police Department and has been employed as such since 2004 and is currently assigned to the Investigations Division.

All information contained in this affidavit can be found in Woodland Park Police Department Case Report No. 18-1530.

On 12-02-18, at On December 2, 2018, Corporal Currin was dispatched to 269 E. Lake Avenue in Woodland Park, Colorado for a welfare check. Cheryl Berreth called the Woodland Park Police Department, she has not heard from her daughter Kelsey Marie Berreth (DOB: 09/15/89).

Cheryl told Cpl. Currin she has contacted her daughter's boyfriend Patrick Frazee and Patrick told her he has not heard from her since last Sunday 11/25. Cheryl told me Patrick and Kelsey have a one year old daughter together named _____, she is currently with Patrick. Cpl. Currin wrote that there were:

- No known planned vacations
- Both vehicles parked at the residence
- Package at the residence in the doorway along with a notice from Black hills energy
- Unusual for daughter

Cpl. Currin called Patrick at 1315 hours with the telephone number (719) 440-5759 provided to Cpl. Currin by Cheryl. Patrick told Cpl. Currin the last time he had any contact with Kelsey was a text message on the 25th. He told Cpl. Currin she was an employee at Doss Aviation in Pueblo, Colorado as a flight instructor. Patrick told Cpl. Currin that recently he returned all of Kelsey's belongings such as the spare key to her apartment, extra car key, a hand gun, and other belongs. He told Cpl. Currin they have grown apart and the extent of their relationship was their daughter.

At 1415 hours, Cpl. Currin, contacted Doss Aviation located at 1 William White Blvd. in Pueblo, Colorado (719) 423-8600. Cpl. Currin spoke to the security officer on duty, he advised he would return Cpl. Currin's call after he obtained any information. At approximately 1600 hours the security officer called and spoke with the dispatcher. The information obtained, Merle Merriak (719) 289-4514 is Kelsey's direct supervisor. He received a texted message from Kelsey last Sunday 11/25 stating she was going out of state to check on grandma.

Cpl. Currin called Cheryl and she was not aware of her daughter traveling to see her grandmother. Cheryl told Cpl. Currin her mother has Parkinson and Alzheimer, does not communicate on the telephone. Cheryl told Cpl. Currin she was going to call her dad. Cheryl later told Cpl. Currin she contacted her father and he has not heard from Kelsey.

At 1636 hours Cpl. Currin called (719) 289-4514 with negative result. Cpl. Currin was unable to leave a message.

On 12-03-18, MPO Beth Huber conducted follow up related to this case. MPO Huber wrote in her report "On December 3, 2018 I, Officer B. Huber #3601 of Woodland Park Police Department, contacted Cheryl Berreth to see if she had heard from Kelsey. Cheryl informed me she had contacted Kelsey's direct supervisor this morning. Kelsey again did not show up to work. Kelsey's direct supervisor attempted to contact Kelsey with no success. Cheryl said Patrick was attempting to work with Verizon to get text message transcripts in an attempt to determine if Kelsey was texting and to see if the texts would provide clues as to Kelsey's location.

I asked Cheryl if she would like to list Kelsey as missing. Cheryl said she would. Kelsey was entered into CCIC as a mission person, CIC: 124629897, NIC: M014878747 at 0944 hours.

I contacted Patrick to determine the last time he physically saw Kelsey. Patrick said the evening of 11/21 they spoke on the phone. Kelsey informed Patrick she wanted them to 'go their separate ways'. Kelsey said they had been growing apart. Patrick gave Kelsey all of her things back. Patrick said he and Kelsey talked about the custody of their daughter. Patrick said they both agreed they were both good parents and they would split custody 50/50. Patrick said Kelsey was not able to keep enough hours at work to maintain insurance for 1/22. Kelsey asked for Patrick to pick up Patrick went to Kelsey's residence to pick up No one was home. Patrick ran some errands in town then returned to Kelsey's residence. Patrick saw Kelsey in the alley way leading to the residence. They spoke in the alley way where Kelsey gave to Patrick. Patrick said he and Kelsey talked on the phone on both Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The last time Patrick talked with Kelsey she told him she was going to study. She did not tell Patrick where she was physically located that day. Patrick said on Sunday 11/25 Kelsey texted "Do you even love me?" to Patrick. Patrick texted her back telling her he did. Days later he received notice his reply did not go through. Patrick said if he had any further information regarding Kelsey. Patrick said she is a 7th Day Adventist and does attend church, but does not know where (maybe one in Colorado Springs). Patrick said Kelsey does have PO Box 811 in Florissant.

At approximately 1105 hours, I attempted to call Kelsey's phone number. It went straight to voice mail. Being concerned Kelsey may be suicidal due to the depression and rehabilitation mentioned by Patrick to Corporal Currin and the fact Patrick informed Corporal Currin he returned Kelsey's gun to her, I contacted Verizon in an attempt to determine Kelsey's last known location. I spoke with Jinny at Verizon. Kelsey's phone was last operational in Gooding, Idaho approximately 6.30 miles from the tower heading in a west/southwest direction on 11/25 at approximately 1713 hours. Dispatch contacted Gooding dispatch. Gooding dispatch said there has been no contact with Kelsey in Gooding or the surrounding four counties searching back to November 1, 2018."

Based on the aforementioned information, your Affiant respectfully requests that a Search Warrant be issued for a residence located at 269 E Lake Avenue, City of Woodland Park, County of Teller and State of Colorado.
