12th Judicial District announces Rio Grande County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The Twelfth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet via videoconference on April 15, 2022, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Rio Grande County. The vacancy will be created by the resignation of the Hon. Barbara A. Zollars. The vacancy will occur on June 1, 2022.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Rio Grande County at the time of investiture and have graduated high school or attained the equivalent of a high school education as indicated by the Department of Education, based upon the record made on the General Education Development test. The annual salary for this position is $93,931, and it is a 55 percent position. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Monica M. Márquez, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the court executive, Christina A. Wingert, 8955 Independence Way, Alamosa, CO 81101.

Applications also are available on the court's home page at

<http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on March 18, 2022. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. on March 11, 2022.

The members of the nominating commission for the Twelfth Judicial District are: Terry Wetherill and Charles Powers of Creede; Junita Martinez of San Luis; John Montgomery of Del Norte; James Valenti of Alamosa; Emma Martinez of La Jara; and Christine Canaly of Crestone.
