20th Judicial District announces Boulder County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The Twentieth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet March 22, 2023, at the Boulder County Justice Center, 1777 6th St., Boulder, CO 80302, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Boulder County. The vacancy will be created by the passing of the Honorable Kristy Martinez.

The vacancy is effective immediately. Under the Colorado Constitution, a nominating commission must select nominees and submit their names to the governor within 30 days of the occurrence of a judicial vacancy.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Boulder County at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado. The current annual salary for this position is $175,908. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Monica M. Márquez, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the court executive, Amy Waddle, 1777 6th St., Boulder, CO 80302. Applications also are available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on March 9, 2023. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. on March 2, 2023.

The members of the nominating commission for the Twentieth Judicial District are: Mari Bush, Courtenay Patterson, James Hooton, Cynthia Mitchell, Claudine Schneider, Tejwant Mangat, and Laura Sparks, all of Boulder.
