PEOPLE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO LIMIT PRE-TRIAL PUBLICITY (P5)

Comes now, by and through the People of the State of Colorado, Elizabeth Reed , Lead Deputy District Attorney and hereby submit the following Response. As grounds therefore, the People state as follows:

1. The People would acknowledge that they are aware of their obligation under Rule Colo. R. Professional Conduct Sections 3.6 and 3.8. The People will comply with the rules.
2. The Defendant has failed to provide specific reasons why an order to limit pretrial publicity is warranted in this Defendant's case.
3. At this stage of the case, the People do not believe a hearing on this motion is warranted. Contrary to the Defendant's motion, there has not been "massive pre-indictment and pre-trial negative publicity" such that it would affect the Defendant's right to a fair trial.
4. The People request that the Defendant's motion be denied without a hearing.
