PEOPLE'S MOTION TO RESCIND UNSEALING OF ARREST WARRANT (P-6)

Comes now, by and through the People of the State of Colorado, Jennifer Viehman, Senior Deputy District Attorney and hereby submit the following Response. As grounds therefore, the People state as follows:

1. On December 21, 2018, the People, via Counsel Reed indicated in court that they had no objection to unsealing the arrest warrant, subject to a protective order, for defense counsel.
2. Counsel Reed was misinformed as to the status of the pending law enforcement investigation. The People object to unsealing of the arrest warrant prior to filing of charges in this case. There is a serious risk that disclosure of this information may jeopardize substantial, ongoing investigative efforts in this case. Further, the People believe that disclosure of this information at this juncture may seriously jeopardize the physical safety of potential witnesses in this investigation.
3. Accordingly, the People request this Honorable Court rescind its December 21, 2018 preclude release of the arrest warrant affidavit to Defendant or his counsel in this case.
