21st Judicial District Announces District Court Vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The 21st Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on August 1, 2024, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the Governor to the office of district judge for the 21st Judicial District (Mesa County). The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Honorable Valerie J. Robison. The vacancy will occur on September 28, 2024.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the 21st Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $193,008. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Maria Berkenkotter, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the court executive Will Sighter, 125 N. Spruce Street, Grand Junction, CO

81501. Applications also are available on the court's home page at courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4:00 p.m. on July 18, 2024. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4:00 p.m. on July 11, 2024.

The members of the nominating commission for the 21st Judicial District are Lori Buck of Fruita; David Combs of Clifton; and Denise Rodriguez, Cynthia Graves, Anne Murphy, J. Martelle Daniels and Daniella Correa Shively, all of Grand Junction.
