MR. ALISSA'S MOTION TO CONTINUE THE AUGUST 6, 2024 MOTIONS HEARING (D-064)

Mr. Alissa, through counsel, respectfully requests this Court continue his motions hearing scheduled for August 6, 2024. In support of this motion, counsel states the following.

1. Mr. Alissa is set for a half-day motions hearing on August 6, 2024. There are a number of outstanding motions that will be addressed at that hearing.
2. On July 30, 2024 this counselor's brother in-law unexpectedly passed away at the age of forty-six. <https://www.emblombrennyfuneral.com/obituaries/simon-waltman>. He passed away unexpectedly from an unknown medical issue, leaving behind this counselor's sister and two young children.
3. This counselor flew to Minnesota on July 31, 2024 to be with her family during this extremely difficult time.
4. Services for this counselor's brother in-law are on Tuesday August 6 and Wednesday August 7, 2024 in Minnesota. Once finding out when the services were going to take place, this counselor reached out to the prosecution informing them that she would need to ask for a continuance of the motions hearing. The prosecution objects to continuing the motions hearing. However, they have cleared August 14 and August 15 with their witnesses if the Court grants the continuance. The defense is available either of those days.

5. As the Court is aware, Mr. Alissa is facing multiple serious accusations and looking at life in prison. This counselor is lead counsel for Mr. Alissa. Mr. Alissa has a right to effective assistance of counsel and to have his lead counsel present at his motions hearing. There is no prejudice to the prosecution in continuing this hearing. Continuing the motions hearing will not impact the start of the trial.

WHEREFORE, this counselor respectfully requests this Court continue the motions hearing scheduled for August 6 2024.
