Elizabeth Walker has been helping parties who genuinely are interested in meaningfully mediating to resolve disputes through mediation for the past 18 years in civil matters involving employer/employee relations, business dissolution, contracts, construction defects, real estate, including landlord/tenant, earnest money and failure to disclose cases, and domestic relations cases involving property division, parenting time and child support.

In addition to her private mediation practice, Elizabeth serves as co-executive director of Court Mediation Services<sup>SM</sup> and oversees the CMS mediation services and mediator training and coaching program. She has prepared and presented continuing education programs on ethics, real estate and mediation related topics.

Formerly, she was a land use attorney and president of a real estate consulting company. She is a member of the Colorado Bar Association and the MAC. She holds a bachelor's and master's degree in English and graduated from Creighton University School of Law in Omaha, Nebraska.
