

Glynnna Baker, a licensed Colorado attorney, has served as an independent contract mediator in over 3,500 domestic relations, juvenile, paternity, dependency and neglect, and civil cases for the Colorado court system since 1995. She has also served as Parenting Plan Facilitator for paternity and post-decree domestic relations cases in JD2.

She gained experience working with high-conflict parties as Child Legal Representative, Child and Family Investigator, 14-10-128 Decision-Maker, and Arbitrator in over 400 court appointments over the course of two decades. Ms. Baker holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Vanderbilt University, a Masters degree in Counseling Psychology from Denver Seminary, and a law degree from University of Denver. She is a member of the Family Law Section of the Colorado Bar Association, the Metro Denver Interdisciplinary Committee, and the Mediation Association of Colorado. Prior to becoming a professional mediator, she practiced personal injury law. When not working as an ADR professional, Ms. Baker can be found hiking, biking, and skiing the mountains of Colorado with her family.
