

Greg is a mediation professional and the founder of Garner Mediation Services (GMS). He focuses on addressing civil court matters, including landlord/tenant issues, employee relations, neighborhood conflicts, property damages, and contract disputes. His approach is to find mutually beneficial resolutions that are fair to all parties involved.

Greg earned his juris doctor law degree from The University of Chicago Law School as well as his bachelor's degree from Cornell University. He is a committed professional providing dispute and conflict resolution services for clients throughout Colorado.