

Kent Gray has been mediating Family Law cases both privately and through the Colorado Office of Dispute Resolution since finishing the Mediation Training with CDR and Associates in December of 2001.

Kent received his Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin in 1978, and his juris doctorate degree from the University of Colorado School of Law in 1982. He also has completed advanced mediation trainings and a special training on doing domestic violence shuttle conferences involving protective orders hosted by the Jefferson County Courts.

While Kent also mediates civil, probate, and Dependency and Neglect cases, he has mediated over 5,000.00 Family law cases in the 4th and 10th Judicial Districts.

Kent started his legal career as a Public Defender and was the office head of the La Junta regional Public Defender Office which has helped him tremendously in his work with pro se parties.
