

MariaJose Delgado is an attorney, mediator, parent coordinator (PC), and child and family investigator (CFI). She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and thereafter engaged in post-baccalaureate study in Rome, Italy, where she focused on conflict resolution among international and intercultural communities. Since she began her legal career at Temple University, she has focused her passion for conflict resolution in divorce and other family law matters.

MariaJose has served on the Colorado Child Support Commission since 2018, and she is a liaison between the Commission and the Family Law Section of the Colorado Bar Association. She has served as faculty for Continuing Legal Education seminars on topics covering relocation, immigration issues in domestic relations cases, mediation of cases involving domestic violence, and child support. She has been recognized by Super Lawyers Magazine as a Rising Star and a Super Lawyer Selectee.

MariaJose is bilingual in English and Spanish. Her mediation calendar and scheduling information is available online at the following link:
