

Reagan SoRell is a mediator that strongly believes in mediation as a proven method that enables people and organizations to resolve conflicts. He is a skilled communicator that listens attentively, facilitates discussion, and assists parties in their pursuit of reaching satisfactory agreements.

Reagan's mediation practice is diverse and is focused primarily in the following areas:

- Family, Domestic Relations, Divorce
- Civil, Insurance, Personal Injury
- Business, Contracts, Probate/Estate Administration, Small Claims
- Real Estate, Landlord/Tenant, HOA/Homeowner, Construction
- Employment, Healthcare, Energy/Natural Resources

Reagan graduated with Honors from Texas A&M University in 2002, and he received his law degree (Juris Doctor) in 2007 from South Texas College of Law-Houston with a focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution. He earned a Mediator Certificate in Texas while attending law school.

Reagan spent the first 11 years of his career as a land negotiator in the energy industry, where he was responsible for contract negotiation, project management, acquisitions and divestitures, and management of land operations for multiple large, complex assets. Reagan played a critical role in negotiating and overseeing due diligence for numerous acquisitions, divestitures, and mergers totaling over $5.5 billion. In 2019, Reagan realized his longtime dream of becoming a mediator by completing a 40-hour mediation course, volunteering with numerous mediation organizations, and seeking counsel from respected mediators as he developed his skills as a mediator.

Reagan volunteers with the Better Business Bureau (BBB) of Southern Colorado and the El Paso County Small Claims Court. Reagan also volunteers with the Turelli Foundation, which focuses on facilitating new agreements for post-decree family law cases referred by judges and magistrates. Reagan believes strongly in giving back to his community, both personally and professionally.

Reagan has extensive Tele-Mediation experience, and he is glad to assist parties in comfortably navigating the online mediation experience. Additionally, Reagan is able to travel throughout the state of Colorado to mediate cases.
