

Susan G. Demidovich, Esq., has served as an independent contract mediator in domestic, civil and probate cases for the Office of Dispute Resolution (ODR) since April, 2001. Between ODR and her private caseload, her mediation experience numbers well over 4,000 domestic and civil cases. From November 2005 through June 2015, she also served as Program Administrator for ODR in Denver County. She previously worked as Case Manager for FACE-to-FACE, a former non-profit community mediation organization which provided mediation for victim/ offender, neighborhood, and parent/teen disputes. She is a member and former Chair of the ADR Section of the Colorado Bar Association, a member of the Family Law Section of the Colorado Bar Association and serves as Chair of the Ethics Committee of the MAC (formerly Colorado Council of Mediators (CCMO)). Prior to becoming a professional mediator, she was an attorney in private practice.