Notice: Colorado Revised Statutes §13-14-105 identifies that a temporary injunction may be issued by the Court and that upon personal service or upon waiver and acceptance of service by the Restrained Person, is to be in effect against the Restrained Person for a period determined to be appropriate by the Court. This injunction restrains the Restrained Person from:

- 1. Ceasing to make payments for mortgage or rent, insurance, utilities or related services, transportation, medical care, or childcare when the Restrained Person has a prior existing duty or legal obligation for making such payments.
- 2. Transferring, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of personal effects or real property, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life.

The Restrained Person shall be required to account to the Court for all extraordinary expenditures made after the injunction is in effect.

Any injunction issued shall not exceed one year after the issuance of the Permanent Civil Protection Order.
