17th Judicial District announces District Court vacancy

Commission sets date to select nominees

The Seventeenth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on April 21, 2025, at the Adams County Justice Center, 1100 Judicial Center Dr., Brighton, CO 80601, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district court for the Seventeenth Judicial District (Adams and Broomfield Counties). The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Honorable Rayna Gokli. The vacancy will occur on June 7, 2025.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Seventeenth Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $198,798. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Maria Berkenkotter, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Patricia Kmitta or Deputy Court Executive, Simone Jones at 1100 Judicial Center Dr. Brighton, CO 80601. Applications are also available on the court's home page at coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on April 4, 2025. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than March 28, 2025, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the Seventeenth Judicial District are:

Dr. Ajenai Clemmons of Northglenn; Martin Flaum and Jennifer Hostetter of Westminster; and Jonathan Datz, Andy Kramer, and Shivam Malhotra, all of Broomfield.
